“ I was very sorry to read about Eileen in the paper. ĩ½She was a very funny lady and I have missed her since her move from Meadowview Lodge. ĩ½When I started years ago in Activities, Eileen and John were very supportive in helping me and forgiving of my mistakes. ĩ½You never walked by John without him smiling and Eileen was always ready to sit and talk a little. ĩ½I truly loved the story of how they moved from one apartment to the one directly across the hall. ĩ½It was because their cat Christy wanted to move. ĩ½She would sit in the window and just watch, after the move she would sit at the glass door and look outside. ĩ½Eileen said she guessed she just wanted a better view and John would smile and nod his head. ĩ½My thoughts and prayers are with the families at this time##imported-begin##Sally Scott##imported-end##
