“ My mother-in-law. There were so many nights when we played cards or dice and laughed and laughed. We made a lot of good memories. Eldora was quite the character. She was "Ma" to so many kids throughout her life. She helped to raise her grandchildren and had a huge influence on even her great-grandkids. She was a strong woman and she will be missed.

The love that you showed to me continues to guide me. You welcomed me into your family with out a thought. When I came home for the holidays with my kids you treated them just as your own. The truth from your heart amd lips was just that truth and honest with a twist of love.

Thank you for being just the person I needed all of these years.
