“ My cousin Betty and I were born about 6 weeks apart, and we almost looked like twins. We spent a lot of time together, mostly at her house - and enjoyed many adventures. Our lives diverged mostly because we were in different schools, then developed different hobbies. I am saddened by her loss. I'd talked with her during her therapy, and she indicated that she and the doctors were optimistic about her future. Alas, that was not the path that occurred. May she Rest In Peace with Billy and Eddie. Her cousin Diane
