“ Our deepest sympathy to the Grant family. May the memories you have keep her close in your heart. The generosity and gifts of time, advice and caring Mrs. Grant gave to others will live long in the memories of so many.

God gained another angel warrior and many in our community have lost a dear friend. May she rest in peace.

“ Growing up across the street I have to say she was the best of the best; one of a kind, who did the impossible every day, and did it well. Larger than life and a living legend. The kindness and generosity of Betty and Dan is saintly and never to be forgotten.
