“ liz will be truly missed.she was a very loving and friendly person.every day i saw liz she was always smiling.she made everyone laugh and she was a really joyful person.i saw her talk to her friends and she was always the person they ran to when they had problems and they could be crying and then after they got done talking to liz they had a HUGE smile on there face.I sat next to her in choir and she always made me smile when she would joke around.Liz always smiled and said hi to me when we were at the lockers together.she may not have known but i could be having a bad day and that one bright smile and her saying hi made me feel better.She had the brightest smile and was the most friendliest person.Her passing was a bad lose to our choir but every one will remember the good days with her.liz was a loved person and we will miss you truly.And to her parents hold your head high and just think liz is in a better place

“ Liz was such a sweet girl who was kind to ĩ½everyone. ĩ½I looked forward to Liz's entrance: she came to class every day with a cheery--and loud!--"GOOD MORNING, MISS A!" ĩ½She loved to sing, encouraged others and was always positive. ĩ½Moving away was sad enough; we did not expect our good-bye to be permanent.

Thank you for being such a great kid.

I will miss you, Liz.

“ I pray that GOD will comfort and heal the wounds, i½pain and suffering the family of Elizabeth Jensen has endured.

Elizabeth was a very warm, caring, sweet and gentle young lady who was full of life. She was at the head of her class in JROTC and without a doubt, one of the most respectful and well mannered cadets within the entire JROTC program. Only GOD can explain why bad things happen to good people and my prayer is that the spirit of the living GOD will provide us all with a peace that passes all understanding in that regard. May GOD bless and keep this family and turn this tragedy into triumph for HIS Glory.

“ As I think back about Lizzie I remeber the way that she would help out with her brothers and sisters. They were so close and I loved the way that she love them all.I always called you a dork just jokeing around and that became one of your favorit sayings.Scotty always said (and then) over and over to you.I can picture you smiling and laughing about how he would say that to you. Your voice and the picture of you play over and over again in my mind. I can hear you saying Mrs. Mendy I love you i;½I miss you.I also hear you telling the babys to go to momma Mendy.So every time that I hear momma Mendy I think of you and can hear the way that you said it. You are my sweet loving pretty teenager. I will always hold you in my heart. You have tuched my life in so many ways and I thank you for that. I love you angle and I know that you are in the best hands now. God will be taking care of you now until we can see each other again. “ Elizabeth had the brightest smile that I have ever known. It would brighten anyone's day. I would joke with her, and her dislike for the color pink. I called her my undercover-pink lover, and the smile she would gave me melted my heart. I see that smile, I hear your voice. Or the smile you had on your face when you wore my dress to a sweet 15 party...you were beautiful darling. Inside and out. Elizabeth, I know your smiling right now sweetheart. I know in my heart you are in a better place. I am going to enjoy each and every memory I have of you. I love you Lizzie!! Your boogey loves you!

And to Lizzie's parents; May you have peace that passes understanding as you cherish the memories of your daughter, and remeber that Elizabeth is in Jesus' arms. He will hold her for you until you can hold her again. So I say to you keep your head up and think of the good times you had with your her and celebrate her life, because her life was beautiful, and bright.##imported-begin##Detra Scott and Family##imported-end##

 You are on a new journey now. Go with the light and the love in your heart and maybe we can be introduced in the next place; I know of a great get-together that's gonna take place on the dark side of the moon where I'm looking forward to seeing your Grandfather and his brother Bob (he's settin' up the tables if he gets there before me!) so I'm lookin' forward to an introduction.....Take care,

“ I knew Elizabeth for several months and in those few months I have come to appreciate her love for life, her intelligence, and her work in class. I had the pleasure to make her laugh and be made fun of by her. She impacted my life without knowing it and it was always a pleasure to have her smiling face in class. The whole week I had to content with students, who's heart felt heavy by the loss and finding papers during my grading. My last words to her were to make me proud? and I know if given the time she would have excelled in this request. My prayers are with your family and I know that Elizabeth is making many people laugh in heaven.

“ I gaze outside my window
And wish upon a star.
I open up my heart
And let my thoughts drift afar.
A tear rolls down my cheek
As I reminisce the past.
You hardly got to live.
Your life went by so fast.
And all because someone else
Made a dumb mistake.
I don't understand why it was
Your life he had to take.
But now there's no way I can bring you back No matter how hard I try.
Because now you're up in heaven
As an angel standing by.
We will miss you lizzy you were a beautiful and talented young woman with a heart of gold who didnt deserve any of this but you will never trully die because in our heart you live forever!!!

“ This is a poem I wrote for her and her family now
your in a better place even though you weren't ready to leave everything happens for a reason now we help your family
we send them the best wishes some love
and all our prayers
we will always remember your smiles
and how you made us laugh even when were down
then we would make you laugh when you were mad
we all help eachother so much without you here is so hard
but we will all get through it all
your friends think of you and know your in a better place
so we are going to make the best of this week everyone will get better we will always love you lizzy
no matter where you are no matter what form your in
and no matter where your family is you will always have us and everyone that made you happy we will always remember
all the smiles
all the times we got hugs
all the times where you made us laugh
the times where you helped us all those times where we helped you
we will always remember all the good times we had with you
