

Eloise M. Sanor

January 16, 1926 - April 8, 2012

Visitation for Eloise M. Sanor, 86, of Manteno, will be from 4 p.m. to 8 p.m. Thursday at the Clancy-Gernon Funeral Home, Manteno, where funeral services will be held at 10 a.m. Friday. The Rev. David Hanners will officiate.

Burial will be in Kankakee Memorial Gardens, Aroma Township. Memorials may be made to the family wishes. She died Sunday (April 8, 2012) at Riverside Medical Center, Kankakee.

Mrs. Sanor was a homemaker and worked at the Hen House and Manteno Springs Assisted Living as a cook. She was born Jan. 16, 1926, in Bourbonnais, the daughter of Earl and Edna Peno Sours. Her husband, Elmer Sanor, whom she married May 17, 1947, in Kankakee, died Feb. 27, 2006. She enjoyed sewing, quilting, crocheting, reading, working puzzle books, taking care of her flowers and playing euchre.

Surviving are two sons and daughters-in-law, Robert and Kim Sanor, and Karl and Mary Sanor, all of Manteno; two daughters and sons-in-law, Renee and Carl Patrick, of Westmont, and Karen and Danny Sharp, of Manteno; six grandchildren, eight great-grandchildren and one on the way.

She was preceded in death by her parents; one daughter, Shirley Rosson; one son, Steven Sanor; and three grandkids.

“ *I'm one of the EMT's that took her to her dialysis. She truly made my day if i was having a bad on. We used to laugh at the people in there cars in the back of the ambulance, thank goodness they couldnt see in.
I will miss her. Thinking of your family at this time. God bless her.
God has another angle that is watching over us.

“ I am one of her CNA's. I work the midnight shift and took care of her every morning. We have shared so many laughs!!! She was the first person I told that I was going to become a grandmother. She crocheted a blue blanket for my grandson. I will forever cherish that. I sort of "adopted" her as my grandmother. One day I was having a bad morning and while I was helping her in the morning, I started to cry. She seen this and she raised my face and said,"Honey, my shoulders are strong." I poured out my soul to her that day. I would give her a big hug and kiss her forehead and make a heart symbol with my hands and said,"You are right here." and told her that I loved her each day before leaving. (that was our daily ritual) She always had a smile for me. My heart goes out to her family.

Eloise, I love you very much and will greatly miss you. It saddens me so much that you are now gone, but you are in God's hands now. Sitting up there in Heaven crocheting and doing your word search books and reading. I will not forget our times we have shared. Thank you for allowing me to care for you. It was all my pleasure. You truly are a sweet, gentle soul.

Katherine Vahl....she called me Kathleen and that was fine by me :)
