“ Rest in peace, Aunt El. I know that you are happy in heaven being with your family that has gone before you.
You were a very strong, kind and giving woman for your family and friends. You enjoyed all your nieces and nephews, remembering everyone's birthdays.
You had wonderful help and support from Sandy and Linda, we are all grateful for that since so many are living away.
We will always remember you.
Love,
Judy

“ I remember the great times we had with Vera the few times we spent with her. The weekend she spent with us not too long ago was by far one of the best as we spent it with her and Gerry Konkol, they were so close. Vera loved speaking to my husband Bill about the past memories with his Grandfather Ed Konkol.

So sorry for your loss and may God continue blessing your family with peace and understanding. You all did a wonderful job always caring for her and loving her unconditionally.

May she rest in paradise and enjoy the after life that we have all been promised.
