“ I don't believe we know each other but I wanted to express my deepest sympathy to you and your family. I too lost an infant daughter last year so I guess that compelled me to send this. I also have a daughter at home and it breaks my heart to know what you must be going through. In case you're interested there is a pregnancy/infant loss support group held the third Thursday of each month inside the mall across from Ruby Tuesday. Sometimes it helps to talk to others who have gone through what you have. Again, please accept my sympathies. I wish you peace.
