“ Dear Family and Friend Paul, Eugene was a hero to the little lady down the hall from him at Our Lady of Victory. When she hollard out for help, he would pull his call light to get her extra assistance. Eugene looked out for everyone and looked forward to his visits with his good friend Paul. I got to know Paul a little bit and was touched by his dedication to his friendship with Eugene. I cried when I learned that Eugene had passed on. He was a viberant and exhuberant personality. I loved to make him laugh to the point his dentures would slip. I knew I had made him happy with his cute crooked smile. His blue eyes had a spark just like his personality ! Glad to know that Eugene is not suffering and is at peace! God Bless and Love, Cathy Goodman###imported-begin##Cathy Goodman###imported-end##
