

Eugene L. Skarbonkiewicz

November 3, 1922 - August 30, 2014

Eugene Ludwig Skarbonkiewicz, 91, of Manteno, passed away Aug. 30, 2014 at Illinois Veterans Home in Manteno.

He was born Nov. 3, 1922, in Chicago, the son of Maximillian and Pauline Babiasz Skarbonkiewicz. He married Loretta Majewski in 1944 in Chicago. She passed away in 1963.

Eugene served in the U.S. Navy for six years as an aircraft tender on the USS Albemarle. He was a flight engineer for American Airlines for 35 years.

Surviving are sons and daughters-in-law, Robert (Patricia), of Hampshire, Paul (Kristin), of Kankakee, Tim, of Woodstock, and Charles, of Chicago; daughter, Rita Hess, of Frederick, Md., stepdaughters, Elaine (Mark) Pesavento, of Riverside, Sheila (Bruce) Antoon Allen, of Glenn Carbon; sisters-in-law and brothers-in-law, Edwin (Rose) Majewski, of Niles, and Virginia Majewski, of Schaumburg; 14 grandchildren; and 25 great-grandchildren.

In addition to his wife, preceding him in death were, his sister, Lorraine Ruhl; stepdaughter, Alicia Antoon; and son-in-law, Peter Hess.

Per his wishes, Eugene's body was donated to science. A celebration of his life will be held in the Spring at the home of his son, Paul. Memorials may be made to the Illinois Veterans Home in Manteno or Hospice of Kankakee County.

Tribute Wall

SM

“ Sue Matherne lit a candle in memory of Eugene L. Skarbonkiewicz

---

Sue Matherne - September 09, 2014 at 07:48 PM

SM

“ I am so so sorry about your Dad. My prayers are with you and May he rest in peace.
Sue Wood Matherne.

---

Sue Matherne - September 09, 2014 at 07:47 PM