“ My Aunt and friend is at peace now. I will have my treasures of memories forever. Mom loved taking pictures of the fun occasions that I have kept in my photo books. We would all go to the smorgasbord pizza restaurant and we celebrated birthdays together also. I loved Evelyn's sense of humor and the fun talks we had on the weekend in our phone conversations. There is little things I will remember like how we used to call each other when our lawn-mowing man was at our house and we would say he's almost done and will be coming to your house. Evelyn loved animals and used to say I give to the donations that accept my money for the pets that wag their tail. I loved that cute saying. God calls each of us home in His will and His timing. It was Evelyn's time to go home. We will see each other again in a Beautiful place of joy no pain or sorrow as God says Welcome Home!
