

Florabelle Nusbaum

February 28, 1905 - October 31, 2005

Florabelle Nusbaum -- Kankakee Visitation for Florabelle Nusbaum, 100, of Kankakee, will be from 10 a.m. Wednesday until the 11 a.m. services at Clancy-Gernon-Hertz Funeral Home, west Kankakee. Rev. Kathy Sweet will officiate. Burial will be in Kankakee Memorial Gardens. Memorials may be made to Hospice of Kankakee Valley. She died Monday (Oct. 31, 2005) at Riverside Medical Center. Mrs. Nusbaum had worked until she was in her 80s. She was a crossing guard at Steuben School and had worked at Valspar and also at the YWCA with the kids. She had also worked at the Kankakee Clinic and as a nurse's aide at St. Mary's Hospital during World War II and at various grocery stores in the area. She was born Feb. 28, 1905, in Milks Grove, the daughter of Clarence and Edna Allain Dyon. Her husband, Donald A. Nusbaum, whom she married March 29, 1926, in Manteno, died in October 1965. She was a member of St. Mark's United Methodist Church. She enjoyed knitting, crocheting and crossword puzzles. Surviving are one son, Donald E. Nusbaum; one daughter, Doris Nusbaum of Bourbonnais; one sister, Mabel Alberts of Arizona; one brother and sister-in-law, Ambrose and Cleva Dyon of Kankakee; two grandchildren, three great-grandchildren and one great-great-grandchild; several nieces and nephews; and special friend, Sandra R. Davis of Bourbonnais. Deceased are two brothers, Russell Hollenbeck, LaVerne Dyon; and one grandson, Chris Nusbaum.

Tribute Wall

“ 1 file added to the album Tribute Album

Clancy-Gernon Funeral Homes - December 07, 2010 at 02:23 PM

“ May you always find comfort in your memories.

With our deepest Sympathy.##imported-begin##John & Paula Lezotte##imported-end##

October 31, 2005 at 02:27 PM

“ The warm love of a true grandmother is what she has always been to me. ĩ½Just thinking of her and how I know she would respond to an event, brings a smile to my face. ĩ½She has left me with the love of a good VW "bug". ĩ½I only wish she could have gone for a ride in my with the top down! ĩ½I know she's in a much happier place full of great yarn, my heart is still heavy. ĩ½It's hard to image a world without Florabelle 's physical presence! ĩ½My love for her remains a comfort.##imported-begin##Karen Martin##imported-end##

October 31, 2005 at 02:27 PM

“ When I was a junior high student there was often this elderly lady in the stands or on the sidelines at sporting events. ĩ½When it was cold she would have a knit hat that seemed somewhat too big. ĩ½She would cheer our team. ĩ½It took me a while to realize, she was not the grandmother of one of my classmates, but the mother of my coach and teacher. ĩ½How awesome is that! ĩ½All grown up - and she still cheered her daughter on! ĩ½Know I think of you and Sandy often. ĩ½God Bless you both.##imported-begin##Sonja Ketcherside(Gibson)##imported-end##

October 31, 2005 at 02:27 PM

“ NULL##imported-begin##Mike and Judy (Hollenbeck) Underwood##imported-end##

October 31, 2005 at 02:27 PM

“ I wish to express my sympathy to her family for their great loss.

I know her for over 50 years and worked with her at Mobil. ĩ½She was a super nice person, always happy, energetic and full of life. ĩ½I am pleased that she had such a long life.##imported-begin##Pat Stone##imported-end##

October 31, 2005 at 02:27 PM

“ We are deeply saddened with the passing of Aunt Florabelle. ĩ½Her amazing strength and spirit was an inspiration to us. ĩ½We have a "Pedigo" crocheted doily framed in our living room and have treasured it since the day she gave it to us. ĩ½I only wish she had lived closer to us so we could have established a relationship with her. ĩ½We pray that she is now in heaven with her brothers (my father and uncle) and her grandson.

P.S. ĩ½I hope I am still able to mow my own grass (which I now do) up until the age she did!!!!##imported-begin##Tim and Pam (Hollenbeck) Pedigo##imported-end##

October 31, 2005 at 02:27 PM

“ NULL##imported-begin##Denise, Ramage, Will and Allison Milby##imported-end##

October 31, 2005 at 02:27 PM

“ What a joy she has been in our lives! ĩ½I remember all the things she has taught us and instilled upon the 4 of us as children. ĩ½She was a true grandmother to us in every sense of the word. ĩ½We loved her dearly and will miss her immensely. ĩ½I know that she is in a better place and watching over us from above. ĩ½Allison says that she's flying around heaven with all the angels now and can come visit us more often! ĩ½ĩ½We love you and know that you will all be in our prayers!

love to all, ĩ½Denise and family##imported-begin##Denise, Ramage, Will and Allison Milby##imported-end##

October 31, 2005 at 02:27 PM

“ One of my most memberable moments was when we bowled together and how you could count the times the ball rolled by counting the holes. I kept waiting for the ball to bounce off of the pins, but her ball was just like she was, unstoppable.

Florabelle (Mom) will live forever in my heart. ĩ½The world is not as good a place now that one of it's best people has left us.

##imported-begin##Charles Tracy##imported-end##

October 31, 2005 at 02:27 PM

“ NULL##imported-begin##Mona Jones##imported-end##

October 31, 2005 at 02:27 PM

“ ĩ½We wish to extend our sympathy to Dorie, my college roommate and friend. ĩ½100 is a long life!##imported-begin##Pat and Joann Finegan##imported-end##

October 31, 2005 at 02:27 PM

“ Our thoughts are with you during these difficult times. ĩ½May the Angels surround your family to help ease the pain of your loss Florabelle was a really neat/sweet lady. ĩ½We are honored to have had a chance to get to know her. ĩ½May God bless you all.##imported-begin##Lucek Family and The Renehan Family##imported-end##

October 31, 2005 at 02:27 PM