“ I have fond memories of the Mackin family when they lived on South Greenwood Ave. in Kankakee. I lived right across the street from them with my family. The Mackins were always busy and full of fun in the neighborhood! Florence was the heart of the family !

God bless Florence !

“ Sympathy and prayers for the family. Florence was a cousin to my mother Elaine Mulligan. Mom talked of her often. I don't remember her, but I knew her brother Leon. He came to my grandmother's (Della Wright) in Bradley, IL often when I was young.
