“ We will always remember you as a man who enjoyed life to the fullest. There wasn't a better loving couple than Floyd & Rita. I have great memories of working on your farm that one summer and of all the get togethers we had with Aunt Dean, Uncle Max, Mom (June) and Dad (Bob). You are greatly missed but always in our hearts.##imported-begin##Bill & Sabina Peppin##imported-end##

“ Uncle Floyd was a great, loving Uncle. Aunt Rita & Uncle Floyd lived on a big farm, on St. George road. I can remember when we could ride bikes on it and the minibike. I remember going there on 4th of July's, with all the family and friends and sometimes bee's. I remember they used to have a donkey, pony and cows and one time one cow was running lose. I can remember Unle Floyd grew corn. They had a big dog, Rex, and lots of cats. Also, the Christmas when Aunt Rita, and Uncle Floyd bought Sharon her first car. We always had a good time. The adults played cards and us kids always had a good time at the big old farm house. God be with you. Love, Donna
