“ Vicki, please know that my thoughts and prayers are with you at this time and that my hope is that these next few days bring you strength.

While I didn't know your mother well, I know the commitment you had for her and I'm sure that your dedication meant a great deal to her, especially these past few years.

May God bless your mother and welcome her into His arms, and may the grace of God be with you. ĩ½As the Irish saying goes, 'May the road rise up to meet you.'

God bless you.

Your friend,

Tom

- I'm in Kankakee visiting family and will be leaving the 27th. ĩ½Although vehicle-less, I can make arrangements to meet you for coffee before I leave should you have the time. ĩ½I was staying with my middle-daughter, Beth, but am now staying with Max Brigham and his wife, Monica, at their home in Chebanse.##imported-begin##Thomas E. “ Vicki. Lets get together for lunch, I don't get to the K3 paper often but saw the tribute to your mom...after all we are almost neighbors, the northern contingent of Kankakee Ill , a rare and almost extinct breed of the human race.
