“ Fran was definately one of my all time favorites. i¿½She never failed to give me a smile and hello when meeting in the hallway and she never failed to let me know I was late starting an activity.

I was reading a Bible verse at one of our Memorial Services with a room full of people and as I started to speak, she very loudly told me that she couldn't hear me. i¿½I spoke a little louder and once again she said she couldn't hear me, I spoke very loud and she just nodded her head. i¿½After it was over she stopped me to say that that was a very nice service and I had done a very nice job. i¿½She would ask about my grandchildren and would remind me of a story I had told her earlier. i¿½I willtruely miss her.##imported-begin##Sally Scott##imported-end##
