“ I didn't know Frank that well but did deliver mail to Claire & Joyce in their jobs as school secretaries over the years and heard lots of good stories about him from them, and by all accounts he was a very nice man.

“ Karen and Suzette, how blessed you were to have such a wonderful man for a father. I'm blessed to have had him in my life at such a crucial point in our high school years. Your family gave me stability and spiritual guidance when I needed it most. I will never forget his kindness. So many loving memories! God bless.

“ Dear Suzette and Karen: Have thought of you often. The last time I saw your dad was at Grandpa Leo Beaupre's funeral in Kankakee 25+yrs. ago. We sat together at church and laughed about being "the outlaws"! So sad to hear of his passing. Hope you are well. Blessings, Aunt Marge (Beaupre) Lewis

Thank you so much Brian for your friendship with my father. You're right, he was a great guy! We loved having daddy down here in Simpsonville with us. He loved the weather here. It gets chilly in the winter but not Illinois chilly!
