“ To the Seliga Family, we send our love and deepest condolences to you. Frank was truly a kind, genuine and well-loved gentleman. As a fellow musician, playing the same circuit around Chicagoland in the 60's, 70's & 80's, I have memories of Frank that shine brightly in my mind because of Frank's honest, charismatic and classy persona. May God bless his soul and may He help you all through this difficult time. Feel comforted knowing that those touched by Frank during his life on earth will unquestionably miss his smile and kindness.
Sincerely,
