“ Around 10 or so years ago I made a wish as a child on a turkey wish bone. As I pulled with all my might and prayed to get the better end I repeated my wish over and over again. I did indeed end up with the better end and I got my wish. I've never told a soul what I wished for, yet I doubt they cared, as I was only a child anyways. The only thing that came to my mind when I was told to make a wish was, " I wish Uncle Fred would live for a long time." Those are the words I repeated on that day I got the better end of my wishbone. It may sound trivial to many, but that was MY wish and it's all I cared about. Since that day I vowed that I would keep that wishbone until the day you went home to become someones angel. I still have that wishbone wrapped in plastic and put away.

I'm glad I could see you once more before you had to go. I loved you very much and I will be thinking of you always. Don't be afraid to stop in and say hello. I'll be looking for you :)

Love always, you niece Lynn###imported-begin###Lynn Detterline (Schwass)###imported-end###

“ Dad- you will never know how loved you were and how missed you are now. we all love you and now you can be in heaven and take care of mom and matt and grandpa. One day you will see us all again. but what matters is that you are no longer in pain and you can watch over all of your children and be free with no pain and no hurt. we might be sad now but one day everyone will see you weren't living your life to the effect you wanted to. and now you can be happy with your loved ones. I love you and miss you more than you will ever know and i always will. sweet dreams!###imported-begin###Lauren Schwass###imported-end###
