Shelly, Matt & Don,,

We are so sorry for your loss of your Garrett. We know that your loss has been very tough to handle and there is no way a parent and family can seem to understand this loss. But God is good and heals all wounds. Garret is smiling and in the great hands of the Lord. Roger and Lois, your pain is our pain and will never be forgotten. We love you all and wish only the best in this short life we all have. May we all rejoice with Garrett in the future.

“ Garrett was a loving and caring person from birth. I was one of the lucky ones to have the chance to watch him grow up from when he was a baby. I loved that kid like my own!! He had lots of great ideas and awesome plans for life. I will miss you bud and will never forget you!

Love,
Uncle Jeff W.

“ Garrett was an amazing person! We first met at burger king and ended up hanging out all day. After that we were close and talked everyday and became a couple. He was so sweet, loving, and caring. I miss him so much.

After a period of time of only talking and not seeing each other our feelings didn't change for each other. We reconnected and had a blast when we hung out. The last day I saw him 3-7-15 we had the whole day together and talked about a lot. That was the last hug i got and last time i had the chance to talk to him. I love you so much Garrett. Your always in my heart and I wish things would've went differently then they did. See you soon boo 🥺❤️🥺

“ I've known Garrett since we were little, our mom's have been friends forever. I remember one day I got a message from this weird Facebook page "no more Jose black" didn't know who it was. I asked who is this and all they said was that I know them. Eventually I got the person to tell me who it was and it was Garrett. I couldn't stop laughing, seeing his pictures of him dressed in this black body suite taking pictures with people. I asked him if anyone knew it was him he said no and not to tell anyone. Just the thought of him going out in public wearing that and taking pictures with random people had me cracking up. I'm gonna miss him alot, always making people laugh and smile on there worst days.

He was always cracking jokes to make you laugh or smile. Its like he always wanted to see everyone else happy all the time. That is my biggest and most joyous memory of him, he was always like that each and every single day.

“ Some of my best memories with you is when you would just show up to my house and ask me to walk all the way to clown park with you just to swing on the clown swing for hours on end, or when we took a short cut through olivet university and had out to out run security I was so out of breath but you still had me cracking up. You were truly an amazing person rip
