“ *George,
I will never forget when Bernie and I sent you a fruit basket and called the order in the same time I called in an order to send to my Mom, also. When they did the order, they included my Mom's order with yours and you called and said you received a "sky high" fruit basket and that you had enough fruit to eat for a year! That was a funny thing! But we sure love you and will miss you so much. You have been a huge part of our lives and we will cherish you forever! You are the best!!
Love, Shelley*

“ My dearest George, I Love You! You know that and now you are above watching over us, just as you were the best neighbor in the world to us when we lived across the street and watched over us then. As I was sitting down to write your birthday card, I got the news that you had passed into the heavens above. I still can't believe the news and that I won't be able to visit and hug you again in person. You are in my heart forever and I cherish every moment we had together visiting and being you neighbor. You are the best and your friendship will be cherished forever and ever. I will forever hold each and every card you sent to us after we moved away closer and closer, my dear neighbor and friend.

May you rest in peace in the heavens above and our love is forever with you and Barb as you are reunited. Our deepest sympathy is with your entire family. My love Always and forever, Shelley
