“ The news of your passing hurts my heart ❤️. I met you and became friends when your Dad bought the grocery store on Broadway. So many memories!! We lost contact for a long time but reunited through Facebook in our adult years. I am truly blessed to have known you and call you my friend. You were such a gentle soul. Rest easy Dale.

“ I have many good memories of Dale from our childhood. We were in the same class in grade school at St. Paul's. I hadn't seen him in many, many years, but I'm sad to learn of his passing. My condolences to his family. I will keep Dale's family in my prayers.

Julie, agree....we had a great class at St. Paul's. We were all together for so many years in grade school. I remember us boys playing pinball at Matt's Pizza (usually during school) ha...sneaking into the Paramount and Town Cinema through those back doors! All of the memories. We were all fortunate to have each other for so many early years. Dale was the best...God bless his family.

Agree Kirk! I remember sneaking out of going to church (gasp!) to just go sit with Dale at Matt's Pizza & talk about anything & everything. Don't even remember if we ate there. We just talked & maybe had some pop.
