“ Gregory was my special cousin. When I was small, there was nothing better than sitting on the Blake family swing on the front porch, watching the traffic fly by on Route 45 and reading to Greg. ĩ½He'd laugh at my antics and I was his girlfriend. ĩ½He'd put his arm around my shoulders and hug me close. ĩ½I believe God places special people in our lives to teach us about such things as compassion for others, patience, and above all, family love. ĩ½We all loved Greg and rejoice that he is now with his momma and daddy and all his aunts and uncles and knows only happiness and a brand new life. ĩ½I will always have a special place in my heart for our Gregory.##imported-begin##Lori Betourne Rusk##imported-end##

“ May you find comfort in the memories that are yours to cherish always, and strength in the companionship of those who share your loss.... I have learned never to underestimate the healing power we all have. It is always there to be used for the highest good. Blessed are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted. (Matthew 5:4) May it be a source of inner strength to know that there's a loving God watching over you, and that, throughout this time of need, He'll stay close by your side. I have fought the fine fight, I have run the course to the finish, I have observed the faith.-2Timothy 4:7. As for me, I will lie down that I may sleep; I shall certainly awake, for Jehovah himself keeps supporting me. -Psalms 3:5
