“ I especially remember the many great Thanksgivings we had together with Lee and family at Harvey and Ruby's house in Aroma Park. Those memories are so special... Aunt Ruby bought our Christmas presents to give to us then since we did not see them at Christmas. She usually kept them upstairs in the bedroom and we would sneak upstairs to find ours.

Thank you. Will see you soon. Tim and I are driving up today. Alan (Kim) McLouth and Family

“ To the family of Lee,

What a great guy! I loved the time we had together when Lee worked the afternoon maintenance shift at the Career Center. He would stop in and toss me a BonBon, which I never particularly liked, but liked it because it was from my buddy Lee! He was a great story teller. He especially loved talking about his trips, most of all to Nashville, and some of the performers he saw at the Grand Old Opry. Lee, I am still planning on going to the Ryman (the original Grand Old Opry)! Lee just had just a friendliness and enthusiasm about him. My life has been blessed from knowing him. God bless you and keep you Lee. Rest in God's peace my friend.

*Just a precious Man of God! Lee and Connie were two of the first people I met when I first moved down to Aroma park from Detroit, Michigan! He had a way of making us feel welcome! He came over with cabbage out of his garden and that was the beginning of a beautiful friendship! We are so blessed to have known Lee and Connie. I'm so Envious that you get to see Jesus first, enjoy your time in Heaven and we will join you someday! God Bless you, Connie, Tim, Jeffery, and Matthew and your families,
With Love Ken and Phyllis Schall and family*

“ I have fond memories of Thanksgivings with the Robersons and a big group of aunts, uncles, grandparents and cousins. Lee always had a smile on his face and kind words - making everyone feel welcome. Although he was soft-spoken, he had a way of making you feel at ease. An example of Lee's calmness in any situation was demonstrated one summer day as we swam in his back yard pool with our young children. My toddler son flipped his safety raft over right behind us, and bobbed there upside down, Without even a break in the conversation, Lee quickly and calmly lunged over to scoop him up before we even realized what had happened. In his retirement, Lee took to woodworking, and we still have a project of his in our home. His quiet, steady presence will be missed.
