I'll Lend you a Child

*I will lend you, for a little time,
A child of mine, he said.
For you to love the while she lives,
And mourn for when she's dead.*

*It may be six or seven years,
Or twenty-two or three.
But will you, till I call her back,
Take care of her for Me?*

*She'll bring her charms to gladden you,
And should her stay be brief.
You'll have her lovely memories,
As solace for your grief.*

*I cannot promise she will stay,
Since all from earth return.
But there are lessons taught down there,
I want this child to learn.*

*I've looked the wide world over,
In search for teachers true.
And from the throngs that crowd life's lanes
I have selected you.*

*Now will you give her all your love,
Nor think the labor vain.
Nor hate me when I come
To take her home again?*

*I fancied that I heard them say,
'Dear Lord, Thy will be done!'
For all the joys Thy child shall bring,
The risk of grief we'll run.*

*We'll shelter her with tenderness,
We'll love her while we may,
And for happiness we've known,
Forever grateful stay.*

*But should the angels call for her,
Much sooner than we planned.
We'll brave the bitter grief that comes,
And try to understand.*
