“ My great grandma Brammer was one strong lady. My best memories of her was when she stayed with my grandma Tibbie. She was very good at playing the organ. I also remember her sitting with me at the kitchen table and helping me sketch out little stick men with hats. She will forever be in my heart and I will miss her dearly.

“ I have known Mrs. Brammer for a long time through her granddaughter Kim. She was always so happy about company coming to see her. I think I will always remember her smile and how kind she was to everyone she came in contact with. My deepest sympathy to Kim, Juanita, Grace, and her entire family.
