“ You have always been there for me. i½From your tight perms to peanut butter and jelly sandwiches after school, breaking up arguments between Bev and I, cooking incredible dishes for all our family get-to-gethers, helping with Mom, standing up for Karl and myself in our wedding and just being you, a wonderful Aunt. i½Aunt Hazel, I will i½miss you terribly. i½I love you. i½I'm sure you are having a wonderful Hanson gab fest with your sisters and a round of golf with Bev. i½You will always be part of me. i½Thank you for giving of yourself. i½Your niece, Sharon

“ Many hours were spent in Hazel and Harold's home when Beverly and I were in high school. They were gracious hosts and always made me feel a part of the family. I am so glad that my sister in Bourbonnais saw Hazel's obit in the newspaper and told me about it. You have my deepest sympathy.##imported-begin##Marianne Stewig Lueth Johnson##imported-end##
