“ Aunt Hazel was always content and happy. It was evident how much she loved Uncle Roy and her family. One of our favorite memories is when they had stopped by our house to visit. We had pulled up chairs and they sit down and immediately held hands. So sweet.

“ I remember as a little girl staying the night at grandmas. She would let me play with Aunt Judy's old Barbie dolls from when she was a little girl. She would sit me up on the island in the kitchen and teach me how to make tuna fish sandwiches on toast. To this day, my dad says I make the best tuna. The love my grandparents shared is so beautiful and rare. One that I would be so blessed to ever find. Grandmas love for God was amazingly abundant. You are free now grandma from all the pain. You are with your Lord and Savior. Thank you for being such a great role model and loving grandma.

“What moves through us is a silence, a quiet sadness, a longing for one more day, one more word, one more touch. We may not understand why you left this earth so soon, or why you left before we were ready to say good-bye, but little by little, we begin to remember not just that you died, but that you lived. And that your life gave us memories too beautiful to forget” --Author Unknown

“Mom is the sweetest and most loving person I know. She is very sensitive and that caused her a lot of heartache at times. But she never allowed that to change the wonderful person she is. She had medical problems that caused her a lot of pain. But she never allowed that to change her love for God. Mom I love you and I am going to miss you so much. my heart is broken. Mltch

“My mom Hazel Neal asked me to pray with her for my dads salvation when I was a young girl. She wanted dad to come to know the Lord. Which we are grateful he did.
