“ Before Matt bought his home Heather would come to Starbucks every morning to get his iced coffees for work the next morning. I'm so thankful to have gotten to know her in that small bit of time every day. She had the biggest smile and it warmed my heart how much she loves her family and her dogs. She's with a very special one of those right now, because I am so sure that all dogs really do go to Heaven! The day came when she no longer was on Starbucks duty and that was sad for me. I really miss my friend. My heart breaks for you all! I really love that beautiful lady! You have my most sincere sympathy. I've realized after losing alot of my family in a short period of time that if I didn't love so much it wouldn't hurt so much. So I am very thankful that I hurt so much! Praying for you!
