“ In 1940 at Norwood Junior High School in Ohio, Helen and I met, became friends and sealed a bond. Throughout 8th grade and high school our bond became stronger. In 1945, Helen married my brother, Bill, and we went from friend to sister-in-law — and our bond became stronger still. My Mother, Father, and I welcomed my dearest friend into our family. Even in death, she remains loved by us all. I'm sure my Mom and Dad welcomed her with open arms in Heaven as they did 69 years ago in our home. God blessed us all that October day in 1940 when Helen came into our lives. — Betty Bose.
