“ I am happy we got the privilage to meet Henrietta and have her as a resident here at the Lodge. She was a lovely lady and the spirit in which she embraced her illness was an inspiration to all of us here. The day before her death she was still smiling when she talked to me. She shared with me the love she had for her family and I am sure you will continue the project she started for you with the photographs she passed on. I think she felt if she got the albums started, you would finish it for her. With my sympathy,

Sarah and I will miss your wonderful attitude and bright smile. You were the nicest great-aunt and I'll bet you look really nice in that bathing suit now. God bless you for the joy you were in our lives.##imported-begin##Jan Vincent##imported-end##
