“ Deepest sympathy for all of Howards family. The last time I saw him was probably 30 years ago. He was, of course, working on my car. I think he was the original "car whisperer". There wasn't a whole lot about cars that he either didn't know or couldn't find out. Whenever we saw him, he was always very good to my family. If I can help in anyway, please let me know. Tommy and Irene know how to get in touch with me.

“ My deepest sympathy for a great guy,I knew Howard from back in the day (1960 Ford Popeye), and from Lagrange Motor Parts, only knew Lamar , and Joe, miss all the good stories , and Howard had a lot of them. Had a lot of good times with Howard, and he always won the bet, or the argument .

Joe or Lamar give me a buzz 847-812-5151 Jack Paskvan, would love to talk to you..

“ Daddy, I love you and will miss you, but we will see each other again. I've always been a Daddy's girl. I know you are well and happy and in no pain. See you soon, love always and forever, Linda
