“ Howard was always the most caring and loving guy. He never knew a stranger. We loved him so much, but we knew he had two special boys, and a wife who loved him dearly! May God be with David, Pete and Barbara in the coming days ahead 🙏. Thank you for being my brother and I love you still ☐. Your sister Gloria and brother in law, Bill.

ME

I have very fond memories of Howard from his days working with my father at the View Restaurant. What I remember most is his warm smile, perfect impersonation of Donald Duck and listening in amazement as he talked to people from around the country on his C.B.Radio.
Howard was a kind man with gentle soul. May his memory be eternal.
