“ Aunt Inez will always hold a warm, special spot inside my heart. Many years ago, she spent nearly an entire 4th of July holiday teaching me how to cross-stitch. At first I struggled to learn, but she stood by me. She kept correcting me, making me practice until I was successful. To this day I still remember a remarkable sparkle in her eye and her warm, welcoming smile. While Aunt Inez will be greatly missed, I know that somewhere she is being welcomed with open arms by my Grandmother and Grandfather, Helen & Spike Regnier. My imagination paints a vivid scene of the three of them in their younger years. Helen & Spike waiting at an old train stop. A steam engine comes barreling into the station. As passengers flood the station Helen & Spike wait with excited eyes. Waiting for what seemed an eternity, Inez walks slowly off of the train with a single piece of luggage. As she's searching for Helen and Spike, she spots them suddenly and begins to run towards them. Laughing and smiling, they embrace. They are together now.##imported-begin##Johnathan Regnier##imported-end##

“ Dear Richard, Connie and families,

So very sadden to read about Aunt Inez passing. You were so blessed to have her mothering you for so very long. She was such a loving person and I treasure all the childhood memories that she gave me. I can still picture her making noodles, cinnamom rolls and speaking french with my mother when they wanted to share and good piece of "news". I take comfort that they are all in Heaven now, together enjoying all God's Blessings for eternity.

“ Rarely was there a church event when you would not find Inez in the kitchen. ĩ½You could always count on her homemade soup, noodles, or apple cake. ĩ½She was a friend who will be missed by all. ĩ½May her family find comfort in their memories and may God hold her in the palm of his hand.##imported-begin##Ray and Jane (Hebert) Hicks##imported-end##
