“ To the Entire Lanoue Family,

Irene was a Grand Lady that I am not related to, but wish that I was. ĩ½From our family to yours, we are sorry for your loss. There were many happy summers we spent together, whether it was at our place or yours. ĩ½I will always remember the many good times, like learning to roast my first golden brown marshmallow from Madore at the Walker?s, or the right way to play a hand of cards from Irene. ĩ½There were many places we visited with the Lanoue family, including the liquor store, with Dad and Madore, for our yearly replenishment (it?s true) before our drive back to Michigan. ĩ½I never knew Dad to drive so slow!!! Thank you all for the many gracious things your family has done with and for ours. ĩ½May God Bless and Be with You Always.##imported-begin##Jim Mikolaizik##imported-end##

“ She was a very nice person as I recall. I was going to the elementary school just behind her house, and one summer , for some reason, I felt that I just had to have a napkin holder...so she got me one! I was totally convinced that vegetable soup was the only soup, and she introduced me to chicken noodle.  ĩ½ĩ½Years later, in fact just in the last 7 or 8, I was working at a local restuarant, and she and her husband came in. They both remembered me. ĩ½My sympathy to all the family as I know she will be greatly missed.##imported-begin##Joyce (Mayhood)

“ From grandson Kevin Lanoue (son of Madore Jr., a.k.a. Joe Lanoue) and wife Debra Gregerman and daughter Eva Lanoue: We love you grandma, and will miss you deeply. We cherish many fond memories, especially of your laughter and lively spirit. I am grateful that Debra and Eva met you and shared time with you when we visited Illinois together. Whenever I visited you over the past few years, you always asked about ?Debbie and Eva,? and you kept our pictures on your wall along with pictures of all those you loved: children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren! Now we are sad, but we trust in the eternal nature of your love for us and of our love for you and grandpa. When I play cards with Eva, I always remember sleeping over at grandma and grandpa?s house as a young boy and playing penny-ante poker with you. Now I am the one who somehow manages to lose a few hands. ¶½You and grandpa remain part of us, and we will always remember. May we touch as many lives as you have. Our thoughts and prayers are with you and the rest of our family.##imported-begin##Kevin Lanoue##imported-end##

“ My heartfelt prayers & sympathy to your family in your loss of Irene. ĩ½As a librarian @ Bradley Library, Irene & I had many a discussion about the books she loved so much. ĩ½They couldn't write them fast enough for her! Kayla & Sharon, we still miss Madore's bubbly personality & know you too will miss them both very dearly. ĩ½Several years back, they used to stop & give my Mom a ride to Mass at St. Joe's when she was walking there. ĩ½Very kind people indeed. ĩ½Warm hugs, ĩ½Barb###imported-begin###Barb Johnston###imported-end###

“ Dear Family of Irene,

I was so shocked when I saw Irene's name in the Obit Recap in Sunday's Journal. (I ONLY subscribe to the Sun Journal.)

I had no idea that her health was so fragile.

PLEASE ACCEPT MY SINCERE SYMPATHY on your loss. She always sent me a b'day card & I always tried to remember her b'day each year also.

May God Bless You All in your loss.

Sincerely, Jeanette (Jan) James
