“ I’m sorry to hear about Aunt Irene’s passing, as we just found out. She was a wonderful aunt. I enjoyed visiting her in our summer Midwest trips and I have a lot of great memories. I’m grateful we were able to see her about 4 years ago. She will be missed. Rest In Peace.

“ I first met Irene when I began working at City National Bank when my husband, Charles worked at the Bank and attended Olivet over sixty years ago. She was very friendly and we had both and recently been married. We enjoyed working together. My husband graduated and accepted a job at Purdue University in West Lafayette, IN. We missed our friends and often returned to visit our friends here. I always enjoyed seeing Irene and we always talked about our children and activities.

The years passed and two years ago when we moved to Westwood, one of the first people that welcomed us was Irene. I had not seen her for years and I was amazed that she remembered me. Again, we enjoyed being together visiting, reminiscing, and talking about our families. Even after she moved to Assisted Living we looked forward to being together at Happy Hour and other activities when she came over and when she would take "a walk" before her evening meal. I have missed her very much and will always remember her. She was very special. Memories are so precious!
