In the early 1930s, she owned the Ave. Shop on Schuyler Ave., where she designed and sold hats. She was an accomplished seamstress, loved to read, play golf and was an avid Bridge player, belonging to many clubs; but was especially fond of the Kiciwoa Club (an Indian name that means friendship) that she started in December of 1938 and continued to be a member. She was a member of St. Patrick's CCW and had belonged to the Tuesday Book Review, the Easter Seal Ladies and the Home Extension Association. In her later years she continued to teach her family about the power of prayer by praying for the needs of each child and grandchild. Her family was her greatest joy and she was an inspiration to all of them. Please sign her guestbook at clancygernon.com. (Pd.)
