“ Dear Iva, one of my first friends at Our Lady, I am going to miss that mischievous smile, the twinkle in your eye, and that amazing laugh when you would get tickled about something, people would just join in or come around the corner to see what you thought was so funny! I'll never forget one day when I told her no more rice krispies (she had already had 3) I told her " no more, Shirley would want you to eat your meal" and I said "You know, Shirley is the boss. " To which Iva replied "she Thinks she's the boss!" Then came the big smile and she burst out laughing! I will miss you sweet friend. Shirley, she loved you so much, and I know you loved her too. Take some comfort in knowing that you were a blessing to her. The devotion, care and love you gave her was amzing to watch and I am so glad I got to meet both of you. Love, Loretta

“ Iva always had such a twinkle in her eyes when she'd come up to the reception area at Presence Our Lady of Victory. She'd take magazines or whatever was laying around out of place and bring them to my desk with a big smile - it was like she was tidying up the area for me. It was like a ritual between us - I'd say thank you and she'd nod her acknowledgment and go on her way. She knew how much she was loved by her daughter who devotedly visited her several times a day. When she was in the reception area when Shirley came to visit, I could see her eyes light up. Rest in peace, Ivy.
