“ Dear Pete, Nikki and family, I am so sorry for your loss. I will keep you all in my prayers. Although I didn't personally have the honor of knowing Jake, I remember the many stories you'd share at work Pete, of the joy he brought to your lives every day. I can only hope some of those cherished memories will continue to bring you joy.

“ Though I did not know jake or his family, I have observed that many MANY people cared for him. The whole community is grieving this loss and asking why. It is in this time that we must turn to god together. My prayers go out to the family in the terrible time of loss. His story isn't over yet. And his legacy will remain forever with all of his friends and with the community.

“ We would like to express our condolences for your unfortunate loss of your son. At this time and the days to come you will need some comfort as your try to move pass this void, this hurdle that is cause by mankind's vicious enemy death. The sliver of light in this dark cloud is the promise that since GOD love the world so much that he sent his Son to rescue us from this constant affliction he will very soon end all causes of death. Job 1:14,15 says he is yearning to return our dear love one like Jacob to us. Please read Isaiah 25:8 & Revelation 21:3,4 together to see this good news from GOD.

“ I've had the pleasure of meeting Jacob at Camp Tecumseh. He was in our cabin during our trip and we had a blast! I've also coached Dynamo Soccer and played against Jacob. I do remember him scoring a few goals against our team. After the game, I told him he was too fast for our team. He smiled and shook my hand. My heart goes out to the family and friends of Jacob Antros.

“ My deepest sympathy to the parents, brother and sister, family, and friends on the great loss of Jake. Jake was a bright and gifted student and an amazing artist! I was impressed by his self-portrait drawing that looked just like him! He always put his best forward. He had a very kind heart. He was quick with a smile. I enjoyed his laughter. Jake was fun to be with and enjoyed comradely. He was friendly and well-liked by all those who spent time with him. Jake will be greatly missed! My prayer is that God and his Holy Spirit will wrap comforting arms around your family and embrace you with comfort, strength, and peace. I continue in prayer for your family.
