“ Jackie and I became friends quickly. I saw in her her talent and yet shyness to sing. God always gave me a eye and joy to see new singers blossom and that she did. She was a strong tenor singer and we sang many duets, trios and she played the lead in one of my children musical. I thought she was beautiful and introduced her to A nice young man named Larry. In which they married and spent life together until God took her home. Jackie always “Giving our best” for the Lord....
