

James Knight

April 6, 1928 - September 17, 2008

James Knight -- Bourbonnais James M. Knight, 80, of Bourbonnais, died Wednesday (Sept. 17, 2008) at Riverside Medical Center, Kankakee, following a courageous battle with cancer. Visitation will be from 11 a.m. Saturday until the 2 p.m. services at the Clancy-Gernon Funeral Home in Bourbonnais. In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to the American Cancer Society, the American Heart Association, or to the American Diabetes Association. Burial will be in All saints Cemetery, Bourbonnais. Mr. Knight retired after 30 years as a tool and die maker. He was born April 6, 1928, in Harco, the son of Elmer and Ethel Karnes Knight. He was a graduate of the Allied School of Trade in Chicago. He served in the U.S. Army (1946-1948) in Korea. He was a member of St. Paul Lutheran Church, Clearwater, Fla., and attended American Lutheran Church in Bourbonnais. His first love was his family. He enjoyed spending time with his wife, children and grandchildren. He loved to play cards with friends and enjoyed working in his workshop, making and fixing things. He enjoyed traveling and motorhoming, and was a member of two motorhome clubs. Surviving are his wife, the former Anna Bledig, whom he married Nov. 11, 1950, in Harrisburg; two daughters and sons-in-law, Rosanne and Tim McGrath of Oak Park, Dianne and David Neumann of Lake-in-the-Hills; three grandchildren, Katie McGrath, Brooke Neumann and Haley Neumann; and several nieces and nephews. Deceased are his parents; grandson, Patrick McGrath; one brother, Elmer Knight; three sisters, Ora Rice, Louise Imhoff and Maxine Bradley; his beloved father-in-law and mother-in-law, Stefano "Fanno" and Rose Bledig; two nephews and two nieces.
