“ I am sorry for your loss. I always tell my husband who is a Chicago native (and is fascinated with farming) about how your Dad would come in from the field as black as the dirt. I was always amazed being a "town" girl myself about the black ring he would leave around the tub. Of course that was before all the fancy farm equipment that they have today. My thoughts are with all of you during this difficult time.##imported-begin##Laura (Franke) Faye##imported-end##

“ Roz, we were so sorry to hear about Jim. I called him about 6 months ago and talked for awhile. I wish we all could have been able to get together at that time. Please, call me.

My brother Larry,8cvx2j passed away just about two weeks ago, on Dec. 3rd. I feel your pain. Praise God, we have the Lord to help us through this. Love, Nancy##imported-begin##Steve and Nancy Kochel##imported-end##
