“ Free Spirit, indeed now more than ever! To that Spirit that filled so many lives and continues to do so.

To Donna and ALL the family and friends, keep the Spirit close all your days. I am truly sorry for all of you that you had to lose this man that meant so much to you at such an early age.

My memories of Jim from Eastridge High School are all of a positive, pleasant and fun young man. I know he worked hard and liked to play hard too. What an inspiration!

Prayers and kind thoughts to you all -- and fly free, Jim Mailloux!!!! You've earned your wings!

“ Jim was a very unique person and that what I liked most about him.
½He was honest and said what was on his mind. ½

Jim and I spent a great deal of time playing Chess after work till the wee hours of the morning and was such great fun.
½We were well matched so our games were very competitive and fun.

We both went our own way in life, but over the years, I fondly thought about the time when we were close friends and wondered how he was doing. Some people fade from memory, but not Jim. ½He was a special human being and a good man.

Jim, Thanks for the memories.
