Jim graduated from Saint Ignatius High School in 1954. He was a brother of the Trappist Monks at the Abbey of Gethsemani in Kentucky from 1954 to 1956. He was in the United States Marine Corps Reserve from 1956 to 1959. He attended DePaul University from 1957 to 1962 and majored in Organ. He worked at St. John Fisher Catholic School from 1962 to 1972 as a Music Teacher and Choir Director. While at St. John Fisher he directed the 80 member men's and boy's liturgical choir and was a member of Chicago's Arch Diocesan Music Commission. When his brother John was married, he chartered a bus to Our Lady of Mount Carmel Church to bring his men's choir to perform at the wedding ceremony. He later went to Nursing School and was certified as an LPN and then worked at Henroten Hospital in Chicago for a number of years. Jim got back into his music career at St. Matthew Church in Glendale Heights where he taught in the school and directed the music program from 1987 until 2007. In 2007, he moved to St. Anne, IL to be near his sister, Mary Jo as she battled cancer. He worked as the Musical Director at St. Anne Catholic Church from 2007 to 2009 with Father Jim Finale. He moved back to Glendale Heights in 2009 and was finally retired. He had more time to spend with his many nieces and nephews and their families and continued to enrich his life through music by playing at thousands of weddings and funerals for friends and family over the years. In 2016, he moved to Franciscan Court in West Chicago and became a member of the choir at Resurrection Church. He would occasionally go back to St. Matthew with some of his long-time friends and former choir members. He wondered in his final days, who would play at all the family gatherings. Well, he will always be playing in our hearts. His final performance was just 3 days before he died, he performed Ave Maria, Be Not Afraid, and Rickety Tickety Tin (a family favorite).

“ I was a member of the choir at St. John Fisher school where Jim was choir director.
He was very kind to me as he was with all members. He singled me out at one of the sessions, and made me feel special which I never forgot.
May he Rest In Peace.

“ I was a member of Jim’s choir at St. Matthew for many years. We were also on several committees together. After choir practice we would go to Clover Leaf restaurant or Baker’s Square for coffee and conversation, laughter and just to enjoy one another’s company. Jim taught me so much. I will love and miss him always. The last time I spoke with him was in 2016. He called me when he heard my daughter had passed away. She was a friend of his also. I regret letting our friendship get away from me. He was so talented and knowledgeable. We have had several other music directors at St. Matthew, but there will never be another ad wonderful as Jim. May the Lord bless and keep him always. May his memory be a blessing and may the angels be enjoying his wonderful music. Till we meet again Jim.
