“ Merle ... too much time has passed since I last saw you and Jan. I heard about Jan being very sick when I helped take Jeff up to Marquette a week ago and Diana told me about the recent condition of Jan. I am so sorry for what Jan had to go through and now the loss you all have to bare. While I know she is better not to be suffering, this world was better off when Jan was here. I have great memories of our trips together, our many golf events and all the other time we spent together ...she will always have a special place in my heart. When things settle down I would really like to come down and have dinner some night and remember some good times to help balance off the pain you must be feeling. Unthinkable, Unimaginable, these are the words that come to my mind when I read our beloved Jan passed away! For me her earthly present will be missed, but the memories of countless encouraging talks will forever stay in my heart. She never sugar coated the truth or pretended to be your friend! I for one will forever know she was my friend!!!! I looked up to her I envy her strength her beauty her poise her savvy!!!! In this crazy world she remembered the old faithful ways but she welcomed the new always giving and getting respect. If you look up WOMAN you will find Jan!!!

“ Nicky, Eddie (how I remember you) and Andrew,

Some of my best childhood memories took place when we were living down the street from each other. I loved your mom. She was funny and beautiful and at my young age, I thought she was the "cool" mom on the block. To this day, when I smell Cinnabar from Estee Lauder I think of her..strange memory to share, I know. But in all the years that have passed I have definitely thought of your mom on occasion. I am thinking of you and your Dad during this tough time and hope that the hundreds of amazing memories you have of her will have you smiling and laughing to help you through. ##imported-begin##Amy Branch##imported-end##

I remember how fun she was to talk with on all of our rides back and forth to our practices, games, school, sleep overs or just hanging out at your house.:) ĩ½What a kind heart she had...She always wanted to help her friends ...you always felt like she was on your side, cheering you on and always listened with an empathic ear. “ Just got back from a short vacation and read the sad news. I worked with Jan at Bunge several years ago. She was always so helpful when I was stuck with a problem and needed help. Hope all of the family dwells on the good memories as I am sure the Good Lord has special duties for her to take care of now and she will not suffer any longer. I know none of the family knows me, but I felt it necessary to express my prayers and thoughts to all of you for the helpful times she spent with me.
