“ My sympathies to Ed and family on the loss of a remarkable woman. Jan was a true credit union believer and ultimate volunteer. I enjoyed many laughs with Jan over the many years I knew her. Always had a smile on her face and something witty to say. The credit union family of Illinois lost a great member.

You were such a role model. Always involved in so many credit union and community activities. You were always there for me as a mentor and friend. I will cherish my memories of our friendship forever. And of course, you were my go to girlfriend for going jewelry shopping! Jared's will forever be grateful to us. Rest In Peace my friend. You are so loved. Vicki Ponzo

“ Eddy, Michael and Michelle,

*Ed and I are so heartbroken for your loss.
Janet had a heart of gold for her family, friends and cousins. I have many great memories of my cousin over the years and want to thank her for being a part of my family. Her journey has ended but her spirit will always be near.
God Bless you and your families in this time of need.
Hugs*
