“ A general thank you to friends and family. I only now returned to this site as an update was in progress when I first tried. Today is 4 weeks since we lost our Jan, and this is all very comforting. It's like a Christmas gift in this Season that has been a difficult one. Friends we haven't seen in a long time, friends who are close at hand, family empathy: these are all wonders of a modern "share site." Jan, you touched many lives, we are thinking of you, and you are with us always in our very hearts. Shine your Christmas Light on us all. Eternal Love, Your Brother, Joe

“ I miss my sister so much. Jan was my older sister and my hero. Her ability to face each day with hope, strength and courage truly inspired me. She fought so hard for so many years, and still managed to find something to laugh about each day. Jan loved her family and we loved her. I know she is in the arms of our Heavenly Father and free of pain and suffering. Jan lived a full life despite her challenges, and I am so thankful for the time we had together. My heart is filled with her love, and I will treasure every moment I had with her.

Karen, I remember you from Eastridge, right? And of course, how you cared for Jan during that trying year she was in the hospital (1976). Our family has appreciated every single nurse, doctor, care-giver who sustained Jan's life for so many years. We are in your debt. Yours is a most noble profession. She always had the best, and she always remembered you with fondness. So have we all! Thank you for your comforting thoughts. Joe

Tribute: Dear Joe & Family, Vince & I just want to let you know we are thinking of you and praying for your family. We lost my youngest brother one year ago November 30th at 48 yrs old. Its so hard to lose a sibling no matter what age but especially at such a young age. We remember meeting and seeing Jan in the Cobb Blvd neighborhood when we all lived there at that magical moment in our lives. Vince & I were wondering how old the nephews are now and hoping they and the rest of your family is well. We hope you are well and happy Joe, we think and speak of you and how our lives were so intertwined and how things have changed but that is part of life. Our hearts go out to you for the loss of Jan. Blessings and love, Vince & Vickie
