“ I do not know where to begin, I grew up in the Milton congregation around you. You were always pleasant and a breath of fresh air to be around. You & your family became my family. I will always remember your warm smile, and I can still hear your voice. I miss you and your family. You are all in my thoughts until we meet again!

“ My deepest condolences to the De Gennaro family. The one word associated most with Jesus is love. A church such as the Philadelphia Church of God, which effectively tells a kind, loving person like Janet that her church membership would end if she maintained a relationship with her loving and caring parents and brother, because they were not at the time active members, knows nothing about love or Jesus. It is so sad that Janet and her family suffered for years, and that now her family will continue to suffer.

“ Janet was truly an amazing woman for God. Her death is tragic and touched the hearts of many. This should be a wake up call for all the members of the PCG.

“ Dear Family:

I am very sorry to hear of the loss of this young woman. I remember her smiling face from many years ago. May God give you comfort in your time of need. You can be sure that there are a lot of people praying for all of you.

“ I pray God will give you peace, as Janet now has. God first, THEN family, THEN church. A young woman with her whole life ahead of her, so sad that she was left with no other choice.

“ I knew Janet De Gennero when I attended the PCG. Such a beautiful person. Each and every member of the PCG should feel the pain of what you've done to contribute to this. You give the money to keep this destructive, mind-warping, and hateful group going. Pain and misery is all you will get in the PCG. My condolences to the De Gennero family.

“ Janet was my first real friend when I first came to Canada in 2007. We had so much in common and she made me feel at home here. We shared a lot of laughs and good times together and I will always remember her. She was like a sister to me and I loved her very much, she will be missed greatly.

“ Janet was a great person and friend, ever since I met her at a Feast in 2001 she has always been an example of being not only happy and joyful, but also an amazing example in sticktoitiveness and perseverance in trials. She will be missed, and remembered. My prayers and thoughts are with you David, and with the rest of the Privratsky family.

I am so sorry for your loss. It doesn't seem fair when someone so young is taken from us. The pain and grief that we go through when we loose them can be so hard to bare. But thank God for His love and mercy, we may not always understand, but God is always there ready to show love to His children in their time of need. My heart goes out to this young lady's husband as well as her parents. I pray God will give you the comfort and peace you need in this time of trial.
