“ Janet,
I woke up thinking of you this morning. Six months have passed since you left us and yet it still seems like only yesterday that you were sitting in your chair, Mike was in his, and all the kitty's were in their favorite spots. Every memory I have of you always takes me to the same place. Different years, different decades, but always at home. You and Mike had a piece of heaven here on earth and I know how much you both loved the life you built together. My prayers now are that you are again surrounded by beauty, and you are waiting to share that with us when we join you. You are loved...you are missed.... Traci

“ Janet, where our time together was short, the memories are not. When I look at Catherine, I can hear your words "Tommy, you are very lucky." Thank you.
*I will miss that amazing smirk. Thank you for the time!
Mike, I'm sorry for your loss. I hope God will bless you with the strength to persevere.*

Hi! I just found this. I am Margie Weimann Laabichi. Janet was my Aunt. I've been looking for her and my uncle for a while when I came across her obituary. I would love to make contact with my cousin, Cathy, if that is possible. Also, is my Uncle still living? Is there anyway to make contact with him? If you please, please call me at: 407-283-0714. I hope we can meet/speak soon!

“ To the best Grandma in the entire world... we miss you more than words can express. It's still so surreal that you're not here anymore. You were the one person that I always thought would be around forever. As silly as that sounds, I think it was just me hoping it was true. You'll always be my favorite person in the world, nothing will change that. I'll never forget the love you gave us, backed by a very firm hand.

I wish we had more time. I wish that the grandkids could've seen you more. I still haven't told Haygen, because I can't find the words without getting upset. He asked about you guys this past weekend while we were camping on the river... He asked when he could go see grandma and grandpa on the river. I couldn't tell him. Kids can see the best and the worst in people. His love for y'all just proves how amazing you were.

I realize this isn't for me to blab on and on, but I don't know where else to do it.

I love you Grandma. Watch over PawPaw for me.

“ I am so sorry for your loss Catherine. I see where you get your good looks from. I know you are hurting but she is no longer in pain. I guess when it's all said and done, we will all be with Janet and many of the loved ones we have lost. God rest her soul. She raised a fantastic child.

“ Catherine and Mike: I haven't seen Janet in a long time, but I have always felt connected to her. She was one of the kindest adults I knew as a kid, and I felt like she was a second mom to me. She used to brush and braid my hair and talk to me. She showed me how to care for plants, brush dogs, and she made me laugh. I loved coming to your home because it was always so calm, and she made it warm and welcoming. I loved her. I'm so sorry for your loss. Lori (Carstens) Zion

“ Mike, I will forever miss Janet in yoga class. I love remembering her kind smile and funny quips but they were no match for her strong energy, honesty and courage. I'm so glad I got to know her in the little way that I did. You are both inspirations to me. See you soon, Julia McDonald

“ Dear Mike,
There are no words to express our profound sadness. Some 40+ years ago when we moved here she took us under her wing. Coming straight out of college she taught David the ropes in a laboratory which he was so grateful. You were such a "Dear" friend and a "Great" Mom to Kathryn and us too.
Love you Both.
