“ We'd like to take this opportunity to send our deepest sympathies to Janice's family, especially Tammy, Corey, and Kari, and Brenden and Carrington. $\frac{1}{2}$ Mrs. Webster was a special friend to all of us at St. Paul's and I especially enjoyed her sense of humor and her loyalty to her all "kids". $\frac{1}{2}$ Remember her fondly as we will, and remember the Bible verse that says, "I am the resurrection and the life, all who believe in Me will not perish but have eternal life!" $\frac{1}{2}$ May the God of all mercy and grace be with you now and always. Sincerely, The Eysters###imported-begin##Tim Eyster###imported-end##

“ My sympathies go out to the family of "Aunt Jan Jan"...she was a wonderful lady.

Her Journey?s Just Begun...

Don?t think of her as gone away?

Her journey?s just begun,

Life holds so many facets?

This earth is only one...

Just think of her as resting

From the sorrow and the tears

In a place of warmth and comfort

Where there are no days and years.

Think how she must be wishing

that we could know today

how nothing but our sadness can really pass away.

And think of her as living in the hearts of those she touched?

for nothing loved is ever lost?

and she was loved so much.

“ We all have roots many, many roots; even when we fail to recognize and believe in those roots. Even the smallest single root has many fibers and branches. The ancestry of our roots; are from our families and friends the roots in our hearts, and our souls. For all those we love and cherish.

I will end with my favorite poem a benediction I love and cherish; words from Numbers.

Numbers 6:24-26; a benediction that I learned from Dad as a young boy. Dad was the kindest, most caring, most empathetic compassionate sentient human being I have ever known. I know my dear sister?s heart and soul are of our source; our source Dad. Dad and my soul too are the same.

To my dear sister Janice Kaye Krumwiede Webster and all our family and friends; "The Lord bless thee, and keep thee: The Lord make his face shine upon thee, and be gracious unto thee: The Lord lift up his countenance upon thee, and give thee peace." Numbers 6:24-26
